

IHS Markit is now S&P Global

Engineering Solutions

Dear Customers,

I am pleased to share with you that our pending merger with S&P Global has officially completed.

This merger is unprecedented – not only in size, but more importantly in strength. Throughout the past months we have learned how complementary our peoples and cultures are, and how much passion the combined company has for you, our customers, and your future.

As we move forward, we will remain focused on helping you solve tomorrow's problems, today, with trusted data, insights, and innovative technology solutions. We will look to leverage the combined company's new capabilities over the next few months and ensure your processes and access to our data and solutions are as seamless as possible.

As an Engineering & Product Design customer (now Engineering Solutions), you will not see any immediate changes to how you access and utilize our information and content. Our merger simply means that the information and experts you have access to has expanded, furthering our work to ensure compliance, reduce risk, and bring products to market faster.

Our team is eager for this next chapter and the value our merger with S&P Global can add to your engineering processes. We will continue to have you top of mind in all of our conversations and if you would like to discuss further, please don't hesitate to reach out directly to your dedicated account manager.

Sincerely,
Ken Honroth
