

IHS Markit Policy for the Processing of Data Governed by the CCPA

The California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, California Civil Code § 1798.100 et seq. (the "CCPA"), will go into effect January 1, 2020. IHS Markit Ltd. and its subsidiaries and affiliates, (collectively "IHS Markit") and your company may have entered into agreement for the provision of services involving your data which potentially includes personal information that is subject to the CCPA and is processed by IHS Markit.

If IHS Markit receives, or will receive, personal information as defined in the CCPA ("Personal Information") under the agreement, IHS Markit is bound by the substantive requirements of the CCPA where it applies. This means that if IHS Markit is processing Personal Information subject to the CCPA on your behalf ("Customer Personal Information") IHS Markit shall not:

- sell<sup>1</sup> Customer Personal Information;
- retain, use, or disclose Customer Personal Information for any purpose other than the specific purpose of performing the services specified in the agreement (including retaining, using, or disclosing Customer Personal Information for a commercial purpose other than providing such service); and
- further collect, sell or use any Customer Markit Personal Information except as necessary to perform the business purpose of the agreement.
