

Knowledge Workspace - the new platform for OHSIS

Introducing IHS Markit's new and improved platform for OHSIS.

Using advanced technology that connects content from over 500 publishing organisations, Knowledge Workspace enables users to keep up-to-date with regulatory demands and the ever-changing legislation and regulated environments.

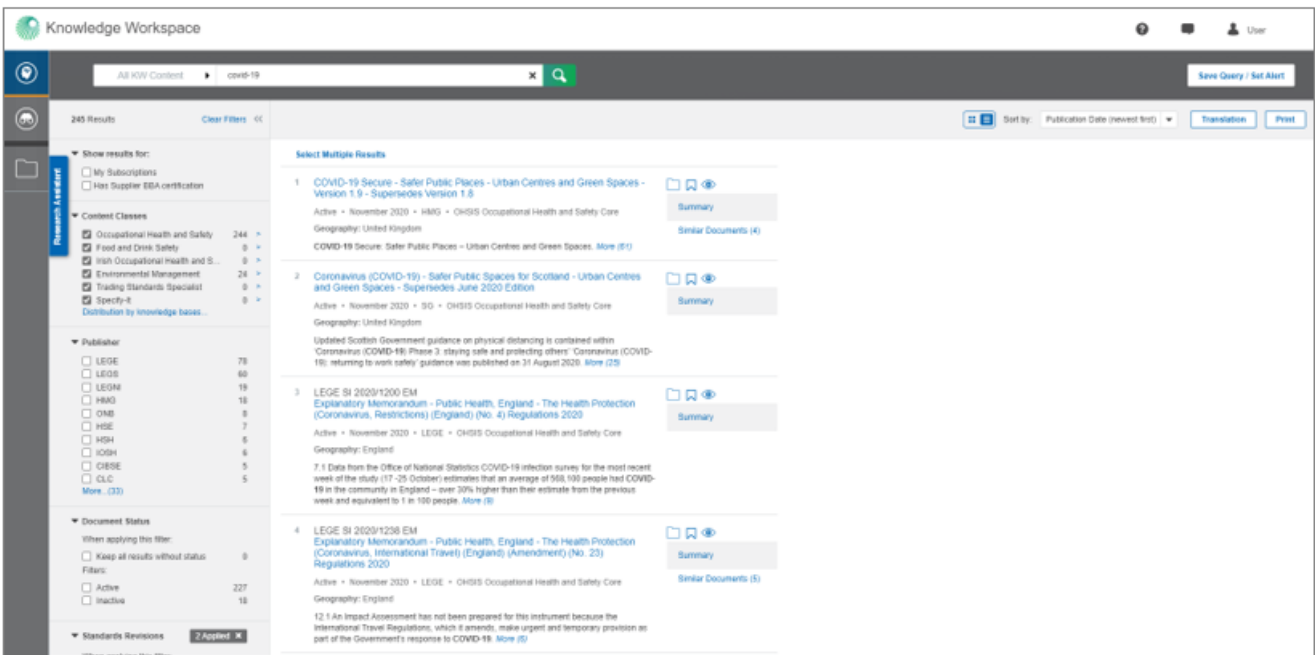

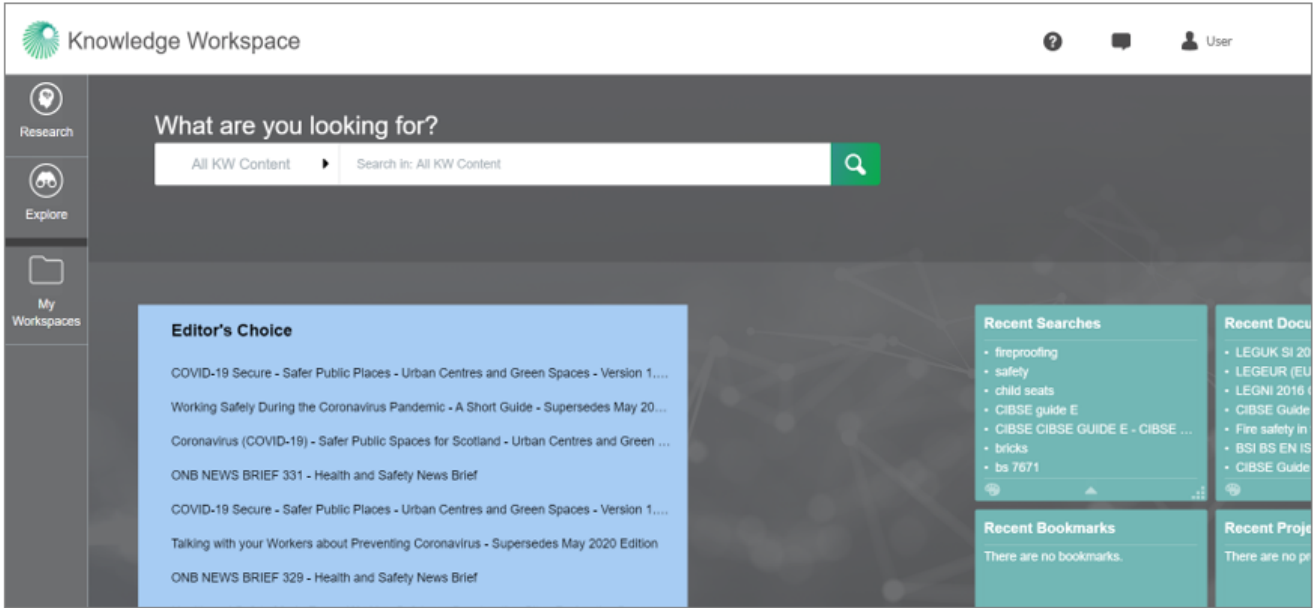

Harnessing the Power of Advanced Technology

Knowledge Workspace is a breakthrough solution that overlays current documents covering legislation, regulations, guidance, standards, and best practices with analytical problem-solving capabilities, quickly surfacing precise answers amongst the disparate data and accelerating decision-making.

Incorporating groundbreaking search capabilities that connect professionals with the must-have content they need to make decisions, the intelligent Knowledge Workspace interface enables users to:

- Manage and track Health, Safety and Environment information using the Watchlist functionality allowing users to create a legal register
- Bookmark important Health and Safety documents for future reference
- Create project teams and libraries of content to collaborate with other users across your firm
- Manage your own personal workspace and preferences for tracking, saving searches, bookmarking, and annotating digital documents
- Discover knowledge through textual or graphical exploration
- Get Link allows users to create links to entire documents, specific pages, or specific sections within a document
